FOREWORD

Fiftieth Anniversary

Fifty years ago Lampasas High School published its first yearbook. The staff of 1965 has joined a parade of fifty years in its story of Lampasas High. We are proud of this edition, for we feel that the book contains valuable data.

We are indebted to Mrs. Carrol Casbeer for the use of the late Stanley Walker's 1915 yearbook, of which he was editor.

Yearbook Staff

HISTORY OF LAMPASAS SCHOOLS

The following is taken from the Sasa Lamp of 1915.

"Prior to the year 1895, the Lampasas City Schools were taught in rented buildings located in various parts of the city, and removals from one location to another were of frequent occurrence. The Buildings were poorly equipped, and the facilities for teaching were very inadequate.

In May 1895, the cornerstone of the present high school building (Ed. note: It is now the intermediate school.) was laid by the Saratoga Lodge A.F. and A.M. No. 456. The building committee was composed of T. W. McKnight, A. W. Hoover, and J. N. Gallbraith. Burt McDonald, of Austin, was the architect and Ed Parker, the builder.

W. M. Chandler was the first superintendent of schools in the new building. His administration of the school was very successful, and it may be safely stated that the graded system of schools now generally adopted had its beginning in Lampasas during his incumbency.

On September 26, 1905, the Lampasas High School was affiliated with the State University in history, English, and mathematics. In 1907, affiliation was secured in physics. In 1910, four affiliations were added: Latin, three units; American history, one-half unit; and civics, one-half unit. In 1912, affiliation was increased by the addition of physiography to the list. In 1913, Lampasas High was also recognized by the State Department of Education as a high school of the first class."

Since 1903, the enrollment in high school has increased from 75 for a four-year high school to 409 for a three-year high school, and the number of faculty members from nine to twenty-four. A principal, guidance counsellor, curriculum coordinator and three secretaries are also included in the current high school system. The first graduating class was in 1897 and was made up of four members. From 1897 to 1915 there were 156 graduates. The total number of graduates of the Lampasas High School the last 50 years is 3500.

Cafeteria Personnel

Through careful planning, the cafeteria personnel prepare nutritious and wholesome food for the faculty and the student body. Manager of the staff is MRS. IRIS GREEN (middle), assisted by MRS. LURA MOORE (left) and MRS. LONEY HEAD (right).

Maintenance

The school custodians are (l to r) MR. EDWARD PARSONS, MRS. MARY SMITH, and MR. M. T. WHITEY. These people are responsible for the neat appearance of our school. The faculty and student body appreciate their efforts.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

The Board of Education is the head of the administrative functions of L. H. S. Too often we fail to realize that they are quietly working "behind the scenes." The group studies our curriculum and sees that our courses are up-to-date. Other duties are having repairs made, equipment checked and rooms painted. Members get little recognition for many hours of hard work. To each of the members who has played a vital role in our education, a very sincere, "thank you."

Board of Education members, superintendents of the schools, the principals, and their wives enjoy a Thanksgiving dinner. Mrs. Bear's homemaking girls decorated, prepared the meal, and acted as hostesses.

PARENT TEACHER ASSOCIATION

PTA's main objective is to promote a closer relationship between the parent and the teacher through various school projects.

President
Mr. Harold Tharp

Standing - Mr. C. C. Elam, Legislative and Citizenship Committee Chairman; Mr. Kenneth Lilley, treasurer; Mr. Bill Bush, Life Membership Committee Chairman. Seated - Mrs. James McFarland, Budget Committee Chairman; Mrs. Irvine Harper, second vice-president; Mrs. Loraine Sparkman, secretary; Mrs. Tommie Martin, Reporter and Publicity Chairman; Mrs. C. J. Gillen, Hamburger Supper Committee Chairman; Mrs. C. I. LaBounty, Hospitality Committee Chairman.

MR. AND MISS L. H. S.

- Merry house -

The last one is now only two weeks away and I suppose I'm looking forward to it. I have certainly enjoyed going to school with you and having the honor of knowing you and being called your friend. I wish you the very best things of life, but know you would have them without my wish because you are surely one of the sweetest, nicest girls I have ever met. May your future always be filled with happiness and content.

Senior officers take off from a busy schedule to bowl at the new bowling alley. They are (l to r) Laura Goodwin, vice-president; Patsy Henderson, treasurer; Warren Studdard, president; and Rochelle Tompkins, secretary.

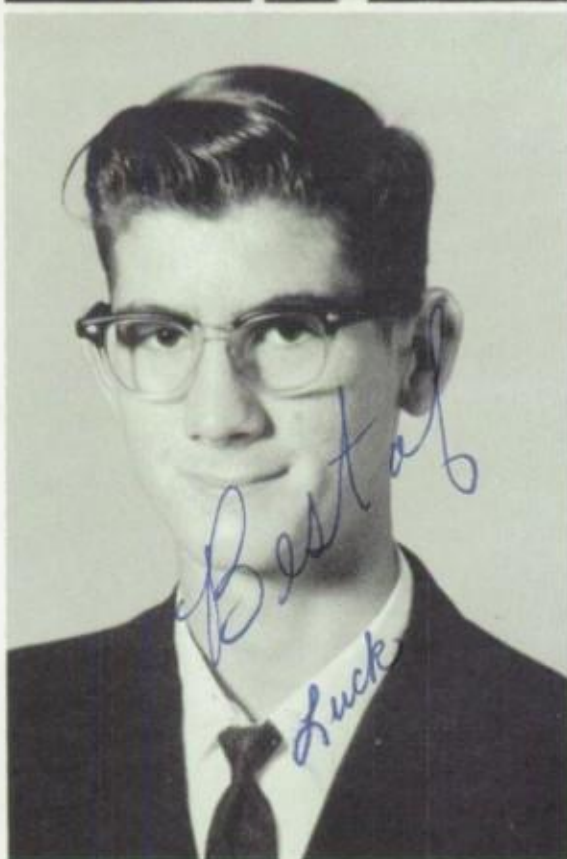

The long awaited year has come at last, and Seniors find it filled with activities. There is excitement with the arrival of Senior rings, hard work to keep the grades up, and scores of parties throughout the year. As the days seem to fly by, the Seniors become more and more impatient for that one particular day - GRADUATION!

Senior sponsors are Mr. Autry Crawford, Mr. Cecil Elkins, Mr. M. B. Harrison, Mrs. Alma Wheeler, and Mr. Emanuel Tumlinson.

Seniors enter L. H. S. for the fourth and last year with mixed feelings of anxiety and regret.

The A & M Workshop was attended by Merris Carpenter, Colleen Gossett, Patsy Henderson, and Linda Gail Wolf with Mrs. Helen Ballamy and Mrs. Lucile Norris as sponsors during July, 1964. The workshop was an exciting and profitable week for the Annual and Badger staffs. Awards for Lampasas included Mrs. Bellamy, most improved beginning photographer; Merris, best all-around beginning photographer; Colleen, first place for cover design; and Patsy, selected for semi-finals in competition for Miss Workshopper.

The Memorial Student Center was the headquarters for students at the A & M workshop.

After a busy day, Colleen, Patsy, and Mrs. Norris labor long into the night to complete more pages for the annual layout.

It's not all work and no play. Mrs. Bellamy, Mrs. Norris, and Patsy enjoy the lounges while Merris, Linda Gail, and Colleen spend a few minutes in the pool.

And of course, how could any A & M workshop be complete without AGGIES!

Dear Mary Louise

Four years have gone in a hurry. I have enjoyed every minute of them although I have gripped about it.

You will always be a best friend! We have had such good times together. I will never forget any of them.

I know you will always be a wonderful person. Thank you for asking me to go to U.F. It has really meant a great deal to me. We have always had about the same ideas about most everything! I'm glad

I hope you will continue making good grades in college. You have maintained a wonderful record in high school although I am sure you would be satisfied (Ha) I am just glad I made it through (Physics with your assistance). I am glad you and Betty Carol and I never had any major fights. Ha-Ha I have enjoyed staying at your house so much.

Best Wishes always!

Love,

Diane
